

Katie Cerda

- 1st year at VCA
- Orton-Gillingham training in explicit multisensory language instruction
- Earned Bachelors Degree from Cal Poly-Pomona and received her early childhood teaching certificate from Colorado Mountain College; in process to receive alternative teaching certificate from the state of Colorado

Special Projects, Special Days and Activities

Alpine Arts
Grandparent's Day
Animal Shelter Project
Class Community Building
Vail Valley Hike
Spirit Week
Fun Mudder
Christmas Program

Pumpkin Picking
Field House
Scripture Memory Contest
Field Trips
Big Buddies
Book Reports
Walking Mountain Field Trips

Enrichment

Music
Physical Education
Art
Technology

Wet, Dry and Try
Weekly Chapel
Memorize Books of the Bible

Homework

The average first grade student will spend approximately 20 minutes Monday-Thursday to give time to practice the art of reading and to reinforce skills and facts learned in the classroom through repetition.

Testing

Terra Nova 3 Testing in the spring